

Said
In Cypress

That we'll lay down our pencil for a few minutes from making New Year's resolutions which never get kept anyway, to jot down a couple of things for this week's column.

That we try to think it's going to be a good year, anyway.

That we'll be the last in town to know what makes with Evie and Thelma that they are wearing those funny caps around. When you find out, you tell us! Seems the two of them lost a bet, and we see the influence of "Cappy" Kelley somewhere in our crystal ball. But outside of that, we know nothing!

That if you haven't noticed the new sign over John's shoe repair shop, take a look. And we have news for you. John actually used a size 13½ boot he had in the shop to repair for a pattern!

That we've lived Christmas all week long, listening to how everyone enjoyed the day. Our family enjoyed every minute of it, with a three-year-old girl and a six-year-old boy around who still believe in "you know who." And this year we have a real fire-place to make it seem more credible.

That we couldn't begin to keep up with the televisions which Santa set down in Cypress, and rather than mention a few and not all of them, we "skipped it." Suffice it to say that a good many families were made happy with such gifts.

That new cars are another prize gift in several families. We can only rejoice with the new owners over such lucky acquisitions. We've still got Junior!

That all kidding aside, we think that Mrs. Pugh and her staff of workers in the post office deserve a lot of praise from all of us for the wonderful service they gave throughout the Christmas season. It couldn't have been easy, with the load which they carried in moving into a new building and all, to maintain such a constant vigil. They gave beyond the call of duty, and the Enterprise, for one, takes this opportunity to publicly recognize the fact.

AL WILSONS GIVE SHOW AT LIBRARY

Children in Cypress were invited to the library last Friday afternoon, where an entertainment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Al Wilson.

In the order of a puppet show, Wilson had revamped a skit previously given at an office affair, to include a third miniature doll character appealing especially to the children. Mrs. Wilson was responsible for the costuming, which was cleverly done.

Following the performance, Wilson entertained with card tricks. He can arrange a program which holds the interest of the audience for a half hour or more.

Mrs. R. O. King, librarian, and the delighted children thanked Mr. and Mrs. Wilson for their efforts and hoped they would come back again.

ROBINSONS HAVE BIG DAY XMAS

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson, 8771 Miller Rd., held open house to their family on Christmas day, entertaining all of their children except one son, who lives at Ames, Iowa, and could not be home.

Their daughters and families are Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Weston and three children of Inglewood, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Simpson and child of Fullerton.

A son, Phil B. Robinson was present as was his fiancée, Miss Yvonne Marvel and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Marvel of Los Angeles. The wedding of the couple has been set for January 29.

Another son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robinson and their two children of 5332 Lincoln Ave. in Cypress, were present, and also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Voris Langdon of Lamar, Colorado, who are spending the holidays with their daughter.

GIRL SCOUTS SING CAROLS—GOOD DEED

Girl Scouts in Troop 14 sang carols on the evening of December 21, as they had planned. They toured Cypress Manor and Cypress acres, particularly, and were entertained at the end of the evening in the Keith Giles home. After a period of games and a gift exchange, Mrs. Giles served refreshments.

Scouts participating were Diane Leverich, Marilyn Wallace, Ivey Giles, Sonia Plue, Doris Simmons, Charlene Clifford, Betty Benson, Lillian Coffman and Janet Teague.

Parents who helped were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Leverich, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Drews and Mr. and Mrs. Giles.

Merchant Cagers Down Tip Top Cleaners of Anaheim, 62 to '39

Although Anaheim's Tip Top Cleaners trailed only seven points at the half Cypress' Merchant basketballers turned on the steam in the second stanza and won by a 62-39 margin.

Pacing the locals was forward Lilly, who netted 22 markers for the evening scoring honors. Bob Hoyt potted 12 points from his guard spot, while "Lanky" Boeckler scored 10 in the other forward position.

Others scoring for the Merchants was Lawrence, 4; Wright, 4; Linker, 7, and Boyd, 3. Ronnie Daniels scored 14 points for Tip Top in the first half, but fouled out in the third period.

Bowlers Split In League Play

Both Cypress Merchant bowling teams numbers one and two split their series this week, winning and losing two apiece.

League-leading Merchants No. 2 met Lalicker's Dry Goods of Buena Park in their match. Salty Falls had high series for the locals with a 556, while Al Wilson hit the high single game of 220.

White Elephant Cafe of Buena Park was the other team to split a series with a Cypress team. The Merchants No. 1, who now are tied with the White Elephant for second place, were paced by Harry Torrance, who had a 485 series. Frank Noe had high single game with a 185.

Next Tuesday will be the top match of this round of league play for both Merchant teams. That is the night they meet each other, and at this point in the competition, a 4-game sweep by the No. 1 team would put them into undisputed first place.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kolosky are parents of a boy and a girl, born Friday in Fullerton General hospital. The twins are the first children for the Kolosky's, and the first grandchildren for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright, maternal grandparents.

Andy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kolosky, live in Washington, Pennsylvania. Andy is managing to keep his feet on the floor and attend to his duties in the meat department at the M&H market.

MILLER FAMILY GATHERS XMAS

The Miller clan met for the Christmas dinner at the home of George D. Miller, 363 Havana Ave., Long Beach.

Attending from Cypress were Mrs. Sarah E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Pike from Buena Park; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Miller and daughter Ruthie, from Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Dorien Brown and daughter Doreen and Jack Murphy, from Santa Cruz; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Weber and daughters Joann and Louise, from North Hollywood; Mrs. Lester Monroe and daughter Georgia Lee, and from Long Beach the host and hostess and small son David.

On Tuesday evening the party assembled at the home of Mrs. Sarah Miller and enjoyed a regular "old Arizona dinner" of short ribs, baked beans, boiled ham and hominy.

POST OFFICE HOURS OVER HOLIDAYS

Mrs. Ruth Pugh, postmaster, has announced that the window at the post office will be closed as usual at noon on Saturday, and will remain closed until Tuesday morning. There will be no mail truck delivery after the 1:30 mail Saturday. However, the lobby will be open to accommodate those who have combination type boxes, or for outgoing mail.

Who's Hopped Santa Claus?

The annual Christmas party for the children of Cypress sponsored by the Cypress Chamber of Commerce was a big success as far as the spirit of the kiddies was concerned. At the appointed hour, one o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the Christmas tree was surrounded by a bevy of the town's youngest citizens with anticipation written all over their faces.

An explanation as to "who's hopped" was Jerry Hamby's version, as explained to his parents. Santa Claus' reindeer broke a leg and Santa got stuck in a "chimney." Better luck next time, Saint Nick!

Much credit goes to the committee who set up a tree, decorated it, and dispensed candy and oranges to the children in the absence of the jolly man. They were Mrs. Leona Murock, Mrs. Evie Junker and Frank Stewart. Forrest Lowrey, at the "mike," acted as master of ceremonies. Several small fry entertained the crowd with songs and poems while waiting for Santa.

QUELL SMALL FIRE TUESDAY MORNING

Members of the Cypress volunteer fire department were called to the Peter Van Rierk dairy, 9371 Denni road, Tuesday morning.

A grass fire was quickly brought under control, but not until a portion of fence had burned away.

The fire was said to have been started by a neighbor who was burning grass.

CORRECTION

Due to an error in reporting the Christmas party which was given by the VFW auxiliary, the part of Santa Claus was not properly credited. Ernest Mitchell was the genial gentleman who dispensed the gifts, and not Glenn Begley.

Mysterious Girl Seeks Refuge; Grabbed by Man

The mystery of a girl who ran frantically to the front door of John C. Coffman, 8911 Watson St., Cypress, late last Friday night, seeking refuge, only to be overtaken and dragged back to an automobile by a shirt-sleeved man with dark hair and mustache, remained unsolved by the authorities this week.

Coffman answered the door and saw the frightened girl, about 18 or 19. She asked if he had a telephone, but before he could answer, the man appeared out of the darkness, seized her and pulled her back to the car at the curb.

"Don't let them get me in the car. Don't let them take me," the girl cried.

But the car, a gray, 1941 sedan, speeded away, closely followed by another maroon sedan, Coffman said. The gray car turned west on Lincoln Ave. and traveled toward Los Angeles county line. The maroon car swung east on Lincoln, pulled in behind Lee's cafe, doubled back west in an alley and turned south on Walker St.

Deputy Sheriffs Earl and McCarter answered Coffman's summons and made a search of the area, but found no trace of the mystery cars.

MANY LOSE— TWO WINNERS

A great deal of interest was shown in the free drawing sponsored by the Essex variety store. A large crowd gathered outside the store and crowded into the interior when the numbers were called off last Friday afternoon at three o'clock.

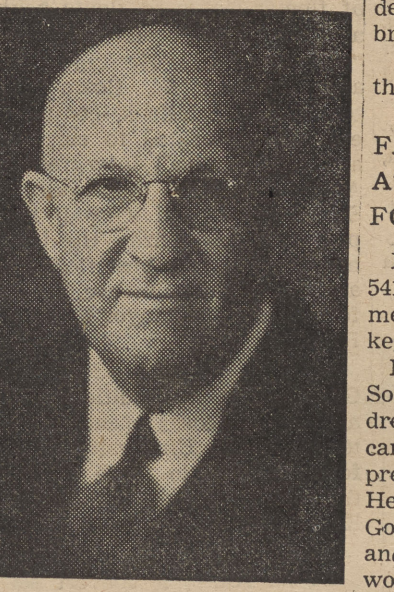

Winner of the electric train was Mrs. Alice Warren of Long Beach. The doll was claimed by Mrs. Florence Redburn of West. Mrs. Florence Redburn of West. Mrs. Florence Redburn of West. Mrs. Florence Redburn of West.

Both the train and the doll were given away on the first numbers drawn.

Mrs. T. V. Stinson recently entertained the members of the missionary society in her home at 8702 Acacia St. They served warm pajamas for the children in the tubular ward at the Orange county hospital.

GIVE LAST CHANCE TO FIGHT P.E.S TAKING OFF RED CARS

Gym Classes Give A Party For A Change

Believing that all work and no play, etc., is a truthful adage, boys and girls taking part in the gymnasium classes as the schoolhouse on Wednesday and Friday evenings had a Christmas party Friday evening in honor of the holiday season.

The utility room was cleared of mats and weights and other paraphernalia used in the calisthenics, and a Christmas tree substituted. This was ingeniously devised from bare branches covered with red berries and strung with icicles and hung with colorful decorations.

Bill Siples very capably managed the affair in his capacity as general chairman. Deloris Cardin was responsible for the tree and decorations. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pender and E. R. Siples. Howard's Market and the Village Market were very generous in their arrangements for refreshments, which together with two cash donations, made the party possible.

The public is extended an invitation to observe what is being accomplished in these classes at any time. Primarily, the training has been in weight lifting. Unfortunately, the only two sets of weights, owned by Bill Siples and Al Dean, are entirely inadequate to continue the training, since most of the boys can now lift approximately 200 pounds.

If enough public interest is shown in this project, the class would like to sponsor an exhibition featuring local talent, and also bring in from outside some interesting acts.

Firemen Furnish Fun & Frolic

Any fire-fighting laddie on the Cypress volunteer fire department has ducats to sell for the big New Year's Eve dance in the fire station Saturday night. Those are tickets, and they are selling for $1.50 per couple.

Bee's High Hats will furnish the music.

I RISE TO REMARK

by John Phillips

What is a googol?

Some reader asked that question of Frank Colby who, for years, has written a column in many newspapers answering questions about the derivation or pronunciation of words. He replied that the word was synthetic, and that it had been coined by Dr. Edward Kasner, an American mathematician, to designate the figure 1 followed by 100 zeros.

Now what I'd like to find out is what they were doing with a 1 followed by 100 zeros? Were they trying to figure the ultimate national debt, if present spending and taxing policies continue? Were they setting up the deficit, after a few years, if the Congress should adopt the program which the President says he will gain propose next January? What were they trying to figure that needed a 1 followed by 100 zeros?

A Trugol

I rise to remark that this gives me an idea. We should have another synthetic word, to designate a 1 followed by 9 zeros. Like this, with a dollar mark in front: $1,000,000,000. Sometimes it is written $1 billion. Why not call it the "trugol." The President seems to have adopted it as the common figure for budget expenditures.

We'll be about 7 trugols in the red by July 1st, 1950, at the present rate, plus a present national debt of 256 trugols. If we adopt the proposed program of government aid and regulation, we could add from 5 to 20 additional trugols to that deficit every fiscal year. I'll say again, for every trugol we spend in Washington, that is $7 out of your pocket individually, and you can multiply it by the members of your family (including babies and grandparents) to find out your family cost for every trugol. It amounts up, doesn't it? Maybe you'll begin to think seriously about the trugols we waste by duplications, unnecessary and overlapping efforts, or misplaced and emotional world aid. A few more trugols in the red and we won't have the "welfare state;" we'll have the "bankrupt state."

Democracy

But, you say, aren't the people getting what they themselves want? Is this what we want? Bankruptcy? Somewhere there must have been a slip. The Washington Food Report, which I read, may have hit it, when it said, "Democracy is the system under which a fellow who didn't vote can spend the rest of the year kicking about the candidates the other fellows elected." Don't blame the other fellows for the trugols. If you stayed away from the polls last November, you're responsible too.

HAPPY NEW YEAR.

County Comment

By GEORGE E. HAET

Gambling

Forcefully objecting to reports that he intends to become a candidate for public office in 1950, Sheriff Schmid of Garden Grove, chairman of the county grand jury, this week issued a public statement in which he said that the rumors of his candidacy are "distorted by sources trying to hamper the grand jury's investigation of gambling."

The grand jury last week issued a report on slot machines and punch boards, directing special criticism at Chief of Police Boyd A. Hershey of Santa Ana for not driving the machines out of Santa Ana and telling the grand jury he believed they were being operated for amusement only, with no pay off.

The report said there was no evidence that there are slot machines or punchboards operating in the unincorporated territory of Sheriff James Musick's jurisdiction, but expressed dissatisfaction with the district attorney's office for not testing constitutionality of the county ordinance authorizing prosecution of slot machine owners. Musick had told the grand jury he had brought no complaints against owners, because advised by the county counsel that the ordinance is unconstitutional.

Increasing emergence of rumors that the grand jury foreman intended to run for various offices, brought Schmid's prompt and flat denial, in the following statement:

"From various parts of the county reports have come to me that I am running for public office. In order to set at rest these statements, I will publicly state what many have known, that I do not desire to be, or will I be, a candidate for public office in the 1950 elections. I will further state that these rumors emanate from sources opposed to the findings of the grand jury in its gambling investigations and are circulated for the sole purpose of trying to diminish the effectiveness of the work of the 1949 grand jury."

SMALL BOY SPEAKS

My mommy has the loveliest hair,
Just now it's golden light;
Last year it was an autumn red;
Before — 'twas black as night.

I like her slacks, sun suits and jeans,
Her pitching arm is sharp!
But even if she changes some
I'm sure I'll never harp —

I'll always like my mommy still
If her pretty hair turns white;
If she sat still and wore a dress,
Why, she's my mom, so she's all right!

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dec. 18, 1949

Cypress Enterprise, Cypress, California.

Dear Editor:
Well, we have moved again, this time for the length of our time we have to remain in Seattle, I hope!

Has been snowing off and on all day and we were moving in the worst part of it.

Tell all of our friends hello for us, and we still prefer the California "fog and smog" to this "slush and mush."

We certainly enjoy our paper and read it from cover to cover, also all the advertisements.

Ray is at home now and will be over the holidays, thank heaven! So we plan to have turkey with all the fixings and invite some of our new friends in.

Thanks for everything,
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. DYE,
411 Aloha Street,
Seattle, Washington.

(Ed's note: Ray is in the coast guard, and the couple are former residents here, who own property in Cypress Manor.)

O. F. DIXONS HOSTS TO GROUP

A gathering of the family clan took place on Christmas day at the O. F. Dixon home, 8811 Miller Rd.

Present for the holiday dinner were Mrs. Dixon's mother, Mrs. C. Batis and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Don Salter, all of Ball and Hansen Rds.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson of Burbank and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grabau and sons, Phil and Edgar were also present.

SET DATES MILK HEARINGS ARE HELD

Public milk hearings in southern California are to be held in January, according to information released by the Bureau of Milk control, California department of agriculture.

Purpose is to receive testimony and evidence concerning amendments to the milk control act, which reduce the number of fluid milk classes from four to three.

The bureau will also receive evidence and testimony relating to any changes that have occurred recently in costs of production and distribution of fluid milk.

Orange county area hearings will be in the council chambers of the city hall in Santa Ana at third and Main streets at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, January 4.

Mrs. Mamie Howard of Wayland, Iowa, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Madge Lyen. They spent Christmas day in Inglewood with the latter's two daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mathes and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hastings of Berkeley. Mrs. Howard's husband, Walter B., passed away in May. They will be remembered by many, having wintered here in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell, Cypress Ave., have as their house guests this holiday season his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene R. Mitchell and daughter, Joan of Ogallala, Nebraska.

Courtney Miles, barber in Corby's shop, is driving a new Ford.

Mrs. John Thomas returned last Wednesday. Her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. John Puls of Saint Clair, accompanied her home from Michigan to spend the winter.

Guests in the A. E. Arnold home for their traditional Christmas morning breakfast prepared by Dr. M. H. Damron were the latter's wife, his mother, from Huntington Park, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Essex, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoyt and "Arnie," Ted Timken, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Arnold.
